The Washington Design Center's Fall Design House

Friday, September 25 to Saturday, December 12

Eight of the area's top designers will transform each room of The Washington Design Center's show house to represent a different historic district in the area. Traveling through the decorated rooms, visitors can find inspiration for their own homes while catching the "Potomac Fever," which is the DC-centric theme of this year's house.

The Washington Design Center's partner for the Fall show house, City Arts D.C., will create a mural at the entry that will also feature the eight historic districts.
